author's note

Howdy! It's Teeb. Thanks so much for reading Undefined! Salem and Penny are near and dear to my heart, and I'm so happy I finally get to share their story with you. I hope you had fun! :)

I actually got blindsided by this project while in the middle of attempting to brainstorm an entirely different one. Life comes at you last, sometimes. Faster than I finished making this, even (22 days!?!?!?). I enjoyed working more loosely this time around... it adds a certain character, does it not? And I still adore how Cyan turned out, but it was a massive amount of effort, and I'd prefer to avoid burnout if possible.

(salem can actually hide his head in his chest, but it felt too silly to use anywhere)

Salem and Penny were born as a fun little creative exercise with my friends, centering around loli & robot pairings, but I hadn't really fleshed them out much since then... until now. I keep wanting to commission other artists to draw them, but Salem kind of sucks to draw (I say this with only love in my heart). Oh, well... that's my own fault, isn't it? Haha.

I formatted this comic for print from the very beginning, but I don't actually plan to print it, barring significant interest. My printer's minimum order quantity is 100! That's a lot of books!!!!

As always, you can find me on Twitter and Baraag at @teebstw and @teebnstlw. Until next time!

Thanks for reading!
